A championship golf course

This spectacular international 18 hole golf course designed by the South African architect Peter Matkovich, of Matkovich & Hayes, a firm of international golf course Architects and Contractors, is built on more than 100 acres of land, amidst an exceptional natural environment, where extensive landscaping has been done to offer technicality and enjoyment to all players, making each game an unforgettable experience.

It is certainly one of the most beautiful golf courses on the island as it lying on a naturally undulating ground and which offers a magnificent view of the green mountains on the one hand and the endless Indian Ocean on the other.

The par 72 course is designed in 2 loops, each consisting of 9 holes. The outward nine is 3201m in length while the inward loop has a length of 3297m. The 4 par threes vary in length from 140m to 200m, the par fours from 320m to 430m and the 4 par fives from 490m to 520m. Facilities include a driving range, chipping green and putting green

Within the course, a second 9 hole par 3 course will be included for beginner player to enjoy a game of golf.
